Dear Professor Eljamel

I was so sorry to hear about the trouble that is afflicting you at the moment. I know that this must be a very difficult time for you. As President of your College, I would be happy to talk to you if you felt that would be a help. I am not sure that there is anything I can do other than to listen to you and to empathise with you in a very difficult situation. If you feel that would be helpful I would be very happy to meet with you.

Once again, my sympathies for you in a very difficult situation.

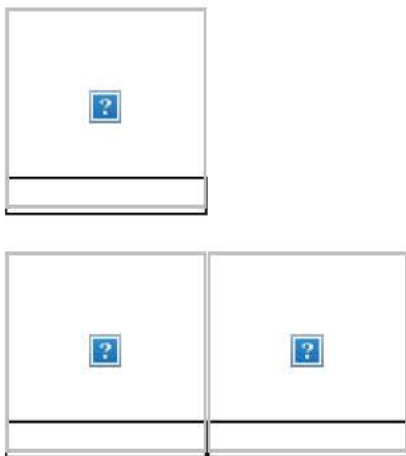

Kind regards
